ROADS WILL CONTEST OVER RIGHT OF WAY

Increased Force Makes Lone Workman Resent Invasion and Quits.

OGDEN, March E .- At Palisade, on the main line of the Southern Pacific, where it is desired by the management of that road to shut off the Western Pacific from the right of way it desires, a large force of men has been put to pork to complete the tunnel through the point in Palisade canyon. Nearly 100 men are at work and the force is being increased as fast as men and materials can be accumulated. The tunnel will be 700 feet in length and The tunnel will be 700 feet in length and when the tracks are laid it will cut out a number of curves in the canyon.

When this work was started but one man was employed for a long time. It is told by the railroad men that when the force was increased this man became resentful. He got the idea that the management was dissatisfied at his rate of progress, and in high resentment he quit his job. One hundred men where he had been going it alone was too much of a menace to a permanent job.

ON WAY TO CALIFORNIA

Senator Kearns Passes Through Ogden on Way to Coast.

Special to The Tribuns.

OGDEN, March 25.—Senator Thomas Kearns passed through Ogden today on his way to the famous Kenwood farm, the California home of the Senator. It is his purpose to remain there for some weeks, but the Senator desires to reach there before the arrival of the famous head of shorthorns, which was mentioned in The Tribune of Saturday, arrives at its destination, nine miles from Santa-Rosa. This herd of famous and registered full-bloods left Ogden this morning but the Senator will reach the ranch before the animals can get there, though the railroad officials promise to put them through in forty-two hours from Ogden. Sanator Kearns is especially proud of the acquisition of this herd of full-blood cattle, and especially pleased that he secured them through J. L. Weber fornerly of Park City and a United States deputy marshal, who served during the troublous days in Utah, when men of nerve were required to enforce the United States laws. HAS WILD THEORIES OF WIERD DEADLY CURRENTS

Criminal Is Captured by Police After a Long, Hard Chase.

PHILADELPHIA, March 25-A. J. Mc lafferty, a machinist, late today fired two shots from a 32-calibre revolver through the parlor window of the residence of former Judge James Gay Gordon, vate counsel to Mayor Weaver. McCaf-ferty was arrested after a chase of about seven blocks. Judge Gordon was not at home at the time, but other members of the family were in the house. The first bullet lodged in the ceiling of the parfor directly beneath the room which Judge Gordon occupied, and the second embedded itself in the parlor wall.

Writes Strange Letters. In McCafferty's pockets were found several letters addressed to State Senator James P. McNichols, stating that the writer intended to discharge his revolver in front of Judge Gordon's home for the purpose of being taken into court. All of the letters were written in an incoherent manner and repeatedly referred to an electric current wave by which a certain class called "Great Thinkers" were causing disease and death.

Wants Wanty Arrested

Wants Many Arrested. Wants Many Arrested.

One of the letters requested in the event of McCafferty being found dead that Judge Gordon, John M. Held in the County Building.

The Salt Lake County Hartleultural society met in the City and and County building Saturday afternoon, with a fast attendance. It had been expected that Prof. Northrup would be present and deliver an address, but the gentleman was unable to appear because of other pressing engagements.

Frof. N. Byhower talked entertainingly of the importance of properly pruning trees and discussed the matter from a scientific stand-point, mentioning various kinds of trees and the methods to be followed to secure the best results. He also advocated the thinning of fruit on trees where it was apparent that the yielf would be arresults heavy to break the limbs. By doing this, he said the remaining fruit would be accastly improved in quality. William Krack, vice-president of the Third district strongly advocated the holding of corrisonal meetings at some point more centrally located, such as Murray or Sandy, and it was decided to hold the next neeting at Murray on April 20. Mr. Krack was appointed a committee to arrange for rooms.
